our Senior Representative in [] 25X1 while he preferred a [] For this job he did not know of one with suitable qualifications, particularly since a good deal of our work in this area involved

b. S. 12.12-52
d. Raised the question of CIA representation on the security committee of NATO as previously discussed at the Deputies' Meeting on 3 and 4 December and noted that (1) the FBI had also requested representation on this committee; (2) the State Department representative would act as the U.S. spokesman; (3) he believed the FBI should be allowed to attend these meetings since the representatives from the other countries would be, in fact, the Bureau's opposite numbers. The Director noted that in theory any representation by the FBI at such meetings should be through CIA; however, there was probably nothing we could do about this at this time, with the exception of advising State that in view of our responsibilities under the law this Agency should be represented at these meetings. The Director added that in our letter no mention should be made of FBI participation. Mr. Dulles undertook to draft this letter for the Director's signature. Done

S. 12-16-52

Mr. Amory:

a. Reported the possibility of a revolution in Bolivia. The Director noted he was becoming a little gun shy on passing direct to the President reports of revolution in any of the Latin American countries and, for the time being, it was probably best just to record them in one of our daily intelligence bulletins.

b. Noted that the French situation at Na San looked bad.
